The Bona-Fide Traveller.

Scene: A public-house at 11.2. p. m. Two travellers, who have walked some distance from a railway-station, and have still some miles to go before reaching their destination for the night, knock at the inn door to obtain refreshment. Landlord appears.

Landlord to 1st Traveller.—We close at eleven ,o'clock, sir; but perhaps you are a traveler?

1st Traveller.—I am.

Landlord.—In these times, sir, you know I am obliged to be very careful whom I serve after time, or I might lose my license. Pray sir, as you say you are a traveller, you will, perhaps, excuse my asking you what in your opinion constitutes a traveller, that, is, a bona-fide traveller?

1st Traveller.—Well, I should say that a traveller is one who—one—who well, one who travels!

Landlord.—Certainly, sir, you are right; but how far may you have travelled, or rather, where did you lodge last night?

1st Traveller.—I lodged nowhere last night, for the fact is I had business which kept me out of doors all night, and, in consequence of that, I feel all the more in need of refreshment I see to obtain at your house.

Landlord.—Very sorry, sir, but the magistrates having jurisdiction in this division of the county are very particular, and if you didn't lodge more than three miles from here last night I can't serve you.

1st Traveller (somewhat astonished).—But, man alive, last night I was 200 miles from this place.

Landlord.—Can't help that, sir. I'm very sorry; but by your own confession you didn't lodge anywhere, and our magistrates have decided that a bona-fide traveller is one who has lodged the night before more than 3 miles from the place at which he demands to be supplied with refreshment.

Traveller No. 2 (who is suffering from an excruciating attack of toothache) Well, surely, at least you will serve me? I have left my home in the North (which, by the way is 150 miles away), and have been travelling nearly all day, and stand in want of some brandy to allay this maddening pain.

Landlord.—Certainly, sir, I will serve you with great pleasure; but for my sake I must take the precaution of asking you just one question, only as a matter of form—where did you sleep last night?

Traveller No 2.—Sleep! Why, confound it I havn't had a wink of sleep for 3 nights, and I should like to know who could sleep with such pain as I have.

Landlord.—Very sorry, sir; but unless you slept at least 3 miles from here last night I can't serve you, and you say yourself that you didn't sleep anywhere, and our magistrates say that you are not a bona-fide traveller if you slept the night before within that distance of the place where you want any drink after hours.

Curtain falls—or rather the door bangs.

Exit Travellers No. 1 and 2, offering up fervent prayers for the landlord and the magistrates.

THE London Telegraph of the 5th of October makes the following important statement:—"We received some days since an important communication to the effect that His Grace the Duke of Northumberland had become a convert to the Roman Catholic faith. To test the accuracy of this statement we sent for information to Alnwick, and learned from a telegraphic despatch that the rumour had no foundation in fact. In consequence, however, of a reiteration of the original assertion, we last night referred the report to one of the highest authorities of the Catholic Church in England, who, in answer to our inquiries, asserted his firm belief in the Duke's conversion, and added that his Grace was lately admitted into communication by the Bishop of Beverley."

"They parted in sorrow, they parted in tears." The husband was to remain at Bordeaux, for he had a situation there; the wife was to go to London as a governess, and they filled the railway station with the noise and sorrow of their parting. "Do not cease to love me, and do not forget that you are the wife of a decent man," said the husband. "Never, never," said the wife, and she pulled out her handkerchief and tied a knot in it, that she might remember.

A SCENE took place the other day in Preston Parish Church. The daughter of a tradesman was about to be married to a butcher coming from Barrow whom she had only seen twice previously. The father and brother of the bride, hearing of the wedding, went to the church before the ceremony had begun. The former seized the bridegroom, while the son endeavored to get the bride away. She refused to go, and clung to the bridegroom. A police sergeant entering the church, the father demanded that the bride should be taken into custody for stealing a watch, and also apparel which she was then wearing. The bride, who was terrified at her father's conduct, gave up the watch. The father averred that his daughter had lost £3,000 by marrying without his consent. The police sergeant refused to take the bride into custody, the father and son were turned out of the church, and the marriage ceremony was proceeded with.

RAYMOND SEWING MACHINES.—These favorite machines are easy to learn, durable and light running—and have all the newest fittings. They make a beautiful stitch and sew light and heaviest work. All who have purchased these machines testify to their excellence. "The Raymond Lockstitch Machines" are made in three sizes. To further recommend these machines a limited number will be let out on hire. A supply lately received by A. B. Gray, sole Agent in B. C.—Albion House, 31st July. 1874.

PRIVATE BOARD AND LODGING.—Mrs. Bonwick, of Vancouver House, Vancouver street, near Angela College, has suitable accommodation for families and single persons on moderate terms. Board or lodging only, if preferred. Will also take charge of children from a distance whose parents or guardians are desirious of their attending school at Victoria.

OLD CHICORY is almost a thing of the past. Finlayson's Coffee presides over the present. It has now superseded what used to be claimed as "superior to any other manufactured on this coast," and will soon be found on every well-furnished table in the Province. Prepared a his premises on Fort street, and sold by all the principal dealers.

PHOTOGRAPHY.—Mr. S. A. Spencer returned from San Francisco on Thursday evening with improved appliances for taking and finishing pictures. Mr. Miller, an experienced retoucher from the first San Francisco galleries, came with Mr. Spencer, having been engaged by him.

THE VICTORIA BINDERY.—Books of all descriptions bound in elegant Turkey, Morocco or common sheep. Paper ruled to any pattern. Receipts numbered and perforated. Charts or Maps mounted on linen with rollers attached, or with cover suitable for the pocket.—R. T. WILLIAMS at T. N. Hibben & Co's.

PHOTOGRAPHY.—We have been requested to announce by Mr. N. Shakespeare that he has perfected arrangements with Mr. R. B. Desmond, late artist of Spencer's Gallery, whereby his services are transferred to the Shakespeare Gallery from this date.

A deep-rooted consciousness that Cassiar has a great future and has already attained that status entitling it to participate in the beneficial institutions and substantial advantages of civilized government leads us to advocate the establishment of a County Court and a mail service more deserving of the appelation. It can scarcely be necessary to adduce arguments to prove the pressing necessity for the former. Anyone can readily understand how essential it is that there should be some means of enforcing the payment of small debts unless, indeed, credit is to be altogether done away with, and one can hardly advocate that in a new gold-field where "Jaw-bone," as it is called in the slang of the country, has filled the belly of many a poor fellow who might else have starved, and has enabled many an honest miner to persevere in a search which has often resulted in conquering the fickle dame. Without the presence of a County Court there is absolutely no means whatever of collecting debts. As a matter of fact the debtor can snap his fingers in the face of the creditor, jingle the money in his pocket, and walk away without paying a cent, and the creditor is utterly powerless. The superficial thinker may possibly run away with the idea that the trader alone suffers from this condition, that the evil does not reach the miners, the consumers generally. But such an idea is the result of mere thoughtlessness. It has long been a recognized law in economics that, under the credit system, the bad debts of the trader are paid by his honest customers. In adjusting the prices of his goods the dealer who sells on credit has a margin for bad debts, which margin is just as much recognized and as regularly provided for as are the ordinary charges for freight and storage; and the percentage thus forming an element in the prices of goods may justly be regarded as a tax which dishonesty levies upon honesty. It follows, therefore, that whatever aids the trader in keeping down the "black column" must tend to lessen that tax which virtue pays to vice, and by so much protect the honest man. Having, as we venture to think, established Cassiar's claim to have a County Court, let us consider very briefly the subject of a more efficient mail service. During the season just closed, a sort of "one-horse" monthly mail service was maintained. It was, perhaps, better than nothing at all, but certainly not much. Not that any blame whatever attached to the contractor, for, on the contrary, we believe he did his illrequited work most faithfully. During the six so-called winter months, even this shadow of a mail service has departed, leaving Cassiar in utter darkness. Looking at its present status and taking into account certain expansion in the immediate future, it does not seem too much to contend for a weekly mail service between Victoria and Cassiar. It is proper to remark that such a service as we now recommend should not be regarded solely in the light of its connection with Cassiar, but rather as a general coast service embracing all the principal settlements and trading posts along the whole extent of our seaboard the growth of which cannot fail to be greatly accelerated by the combined influence of Cassiar and of more frequent mail communication. In short, the mail service we advocate is not for Cassiar only, but for the whole sea coast of the Province; and surely it cannot be denied that the coast interests have altogether outgrown the modes of treatment of the past and present, and demand a share in the substantial advantages of civilized government in some sense commensurate with their enlarged condition. And this brings us to a subject which may be regarded as ancillary to the one we have just been considering, but which we must relegate to a future article.

An Independent Press.

We suppose it is one of the natural consequences that when a journal sells itself body and soul to a Government, it shall defend that Government right or wrong and slander and threaten all who dare to expose official shortcomings or misdoing. At anyrate such would appear to be the case with our local contemporary. It recently fell to our lot, in the discharge of legitimate public duty, to expose a most glaring scheme of corruption in connection with Texada Island, and because the facts elicited were sufficient to secure a verdict of "guilty" before the impartial bar of public opinion against its masters, the organ pursues us with malignity unparalleled, and even goes the length of falsifying the verdict of the Court! Still more recently it fell within the range of our duty to bring to light, at the request of a respectable correspondent, certain official misdoing of a nature to be not unfitly designated "robbery;" in truth the word was suggested to us by being most appropriately, as it still seems to us, written across the face of the official document which was sent for our inspection, and what the scrutiny of a legal gentleman proved to be in reality nothing better than a species of robbery. We stated very distinctly, while holding up the particular case of Mr. McWha, that it was neither a solitary nor even exceptional one, and hence we felt not only justified but in a manner bound to characterise such conduct as it deserved, no matter on whose corns we might tread. For this we have a whole column of abuse from the Government hack. The publication of facts sent to us by honest, hardworking men is denounced as "atrocious libel" and we are threatened with incarceration and all sorts of terrible things. It would doubtless be extremely convenient if the Government could, by such bullying, deter independent journals from publishing and commenting upon their misdeeds. It may be a crime in their eyes for a public journal to espouse the cause of the unfortunate victims of their rascality; but we must inform them and their most fitting organ that neither their lies nor their bullying shall cause us to desert the people or swerve from what we conceive to be the true path of duty. The organ threatens us with pains and penalties, does it? In the words of Macbeth we say to it,

"Lay on Macduff,
And damned be he who first cries, Hold! Enough."

A. GILMORE has just received a large invoice of Oregon Tweeds and Flannels, also, a large lot of White Patent-fitting Shirts, which will be sold CHEAP. Also, Overcoats and Raglans, Boys' Clothing and Hats of all sizes.

ST. JOSEPH'S HOSPITAL.

THE PUBLIC ARE RESPECTFULLY NOtified that Messrs. P. McTiernan, T. Burnes, W. Tierney, H. Thibert, E. McGuill are authorized to take up a collection for the construction of an Hospital to be entrusted to the Sisters of Charity. Lists of subscription will be deposited at several business places throughout the city. The amounts collected 9 years ago, $1200, together with the proceeds both of the present collection and of a society to be soon organized, will be devoted to the erection of an Hospital as soon as plans and specifications are ready.

This Hospital will be open to all persons without distinction either of creed or nationality.

Until the above institution shall be provided with sufficient means to be self-supporting, only a limited number of patients will be admitted free of charge.

The Propeller California in the Recent Storm.

The Portland Oregonian gives the following particulars of the recent passage of the propeller California from these waters to Columbia River:

"About 12 o'clock on Monday night the steamer California arrived here from Sitka and way ports. The steamer was over-due several days when she arrived, and in consequence of the boisterous weather at sea some slight apprehensions were experienced in regard to the safety of the vessel. It turns out that the occasion of the steamer's detention was the extremely rough weather she experienced. Since the California has been running on the northern coast, she has never before encountered such a rough gale as was experienced on the passage to this port. While on the way from Nanaimo to the Mouth of the Columbia, a terrible storm was encountered which lasted for several days and nights with unabated severity. The gale commenced on Friday and continued until Sunday. Wind and waves contended for the mastery, and at times it seemed as if the laboring vessel would not weather the storm. At times the sea ran so high as to sweep the decks. It became necessary to fasten down securely the forward hatches, and keep the steerage passengers below for two days. Large quantities of water found its way into the hold through the hatches, and had to be pumped out at considerable labor. For a long time the prospects of weathering the gale seemed very gloomy; but the gallant steamer rode through the storm in safety, and arrived off the bar soon after the storm subsided. Fortunately the vessel was loaded with coal and oil which could not be damaged by the water. After the storm abated, the steamer entered the river and reached her destination without further danger or detention. Before sailing, however, the California will doubtless undergo some repairs."

Washington Territory.

Quong Chong, one of the principal Chinese merchants at Seattle, was shot through the window of his store by some unknown person. The wound is not serious.

Petitions are circulating for a daily mail on the Sound to be carried by the Olympia and North Pacific.

The Bellingham Bay people are shipping grain, potatoes, shingles and hides to San Francisco.

It is thought that a man named Charles Taylor and his wife who lived near Devil's Head, on the Sound, were drowned some four weeks ago. They had been to Steilacoom, and started home in a small row-boat since which time the boat has been found bottom up, and nothing has been heard of its occupants.

ANOTHER AWFULLY SUDDEN DEATH—Mr. Geo. R. Hudson, keeper of the Merchants' Exchange, Fort street, attended a meeting of Victoria Lodge F. & A. M., on Thursday evening, and about 12 o'clock, while walking home from the Lodge in company with Mr. George Thomson, with whom he had locked arms, suddenly sank to the sidewalk in front of Wilson's stove store and died instantly—blood gushing from his mouth and nostrils in great streams and covering the walk. Death appears to have ensued instantly, as he neither spoke nor moved after reaching the walk. Deceased had been suffering for sometime from heart disease and undoubtedly died from the bursting of the worta.

An inquest was held by Judge Pemberton yesterday and a verdict of "Death from natural causes" rendered. Deceased was a native of Woolwich, England, aged 42 years, and came to the Province in 1862. Deceased was a member of Victoria Lodge of Odd Fellows as well as a Mason and a member of Deluge Engine Company. His remains will be buried from the Reformed Episcopal Church tomorrow afternoon.

CREMATION OF LADY DILKE.—The London Times Berlin correspondent writes:—"The body of Lady Dilke, who died five weeks ago in London, was burnt on the 10th instant at Dresden. The ceremony was performed in the furnace recently invented for burial purposes by Herr Siemens, and the relatives of the deceased lady permitting strangers to be present, a large number of scientific men attended the experiment. When the company had complied with Herr Siemen's request to offer up a mental prayer, the coffin was placed in the chamber of the furnace; six minutes later the coffin burst; five minutes more and the flesh began to melt away; ten minutes more and the skeleton was laid bare; another ten minutes and the bones began to crumble. Seventy-five minutes after the introduction of the coffin into the furnace all that remained of Lady Dilke and the coffin were 6 lbs. of dust placed in an urn. The brother-in-law of the deceased was present."

THE steamer Maude, with the East Coast mail, arrived from Comox, Nanaimo, etc., at 5 ¼ o'clock last evening with the following passengers: Judge Crease, Mr. Pooley, Mr. DeCosmos, Mr. Woods. H. Miller, Williams, A. Davie, T. Davie and wife, Mr. Robertson, Capt. Spring, T. Peck, Branton, Mayers, Capt. Egerton, Dr. Jones, P. Sabiston, Chelsey, Mrs. Griffiths, Brown, and 8 others. The ship Blue Jacket is loading at Departure Bay, and the bark Alalanta at Douglas Pit.

THE Democrats have made a clean sweep in almost every State except Kansas. The Democrats of New Orleans will celebrate victories in the North by grand illuminations. The Committee of 70 have resolved: "That this Committee invite the people of Louisiana to meet at their respective places of worship on Thursday, the 19th day of November, to return thanks to the Almighty God for their deliverance from political bondage."

VIVIAN is at San Francisco again.

Nanaimo.

[From the Free Press.]

On Saturday Mr. T. Morgan had his knee rather badly injured by a piece of rock falling on it.

The entertainment at the Literary Institute on Monday evening for the benefit of the brass band was very largely attended and was a decided success. The performances of the band during the evening were deserving of all praise.

The anniversary celebration of the Wesleyan Church on Saturday evening also passed off exceedingly well. On Sunday evening, in connection with the anniversary services, Rev. Mr. Sexsmith preached a very able sermon indeed.

Nanaimo Assizes.

The Nanaimo Assizes were held on Wednesday and Thursday, Mr. Justice Crease presiding.

Leo and Quamican, two Indians indicted for murdering an Indian woman and her boy, were convicted, with a recommendation to mercy, and sentenced to be hanged.

Chilson and Waterman, concerned in the assault on Capt. Carleton, pleaded guilty and were fined $50 each. Williams, indicted for the same offence, was acquitted.

Capt. Howard, of the bark Remijio, indicted for shooting at a sailor, was acquitted.

Long Live Our Gracious Queen!

The report telegraphed to this office yesterday from London that the Queen had died on Thursday evening, created a painful feeling in this community. Fortunately we were enabled to contradict the report before 9 o'clock. This is the third or fourth time that Her Majesty has been reported dead; and as that event would not affect the Stock market, it is difficult to divine the object of those with whom the reports originated.

NANAIMO.—The Free Press comes to us with a forcible article advocating the establishment of telegraphic and bi-weekly mail communication with that important town and suggesting that Nanaimo should petition the Dominion Government for these desiderata. The object is most proper, the suggestion is an excellent one and should be carried into execution. A good strong petition placed in the hands of the Member for Vancouver to be presented when he goes to Ottawa would tend to strengthen that gentleman's hands in obtaining what we are aware he has been for some time urging upon the attention of the Dominion Government.

DEATH OF THOMAS HODGES.—Mr. Thos. Hodges, the well-known baker, died last evening of pneumonia, after an illness of several days, during which he suffered accutely. Mr. Hodges leaves a wife and a large family to mourn his loss. He was a native of Ireland, but resided for a long time at Bowmanville, Canada. Deceased was a member of Victoria Lodge of Odd Fellows, under whose auspices the body will be buried from the Reformed Episcopal Church on Sunday at 2 o'clock.

MARRIAGE.—The marriage of Mr. Edward Albert Sharpe, Superintendent of the Lunatic Asylum, and Miss Lizzie A. Millsom, was celebrated on Thursday evening at Mr. Gregory's residence, James Bay, by Rev. Mr. Derrick. The bride and bridegroom received the congratulations of many friends on the auspicious occasion, to which we add our own best wishes for their prosperity and happiness.

WE hear that some 15 or 20 new buildings are projected or underway at Nanaimo. Mr. Trounce, architect, has in preparation plans for a new fireproof stone warehouse and a new wharf for Mr. John Hirst, merchant of that place. The warehouse will be 30 feet wide by 90 feet deep, two stories in height, and will be built in a substantial manner of cut stone and rubble. Tenders for the work will be asked in a few days.

FIJI.—Sir Hercules Robinson, in a dispatch from the Fiji Islands, reports to the Home Government that he has imposed taxes, established a tariff based on that of New South Wales, and framed a code of laws. He retains the Government in his own hands until further orders. The King has sent a message confiding the interests of his people to the justice and clemency of Queen Victoria.

THE twin steamer Castalia made a short trial-trip in the Dover Straits Oct. 28 with satisfactory results. A speed of ten knots an hour was made. The engines, however, are still defective, and further repairs and more experimental journeys will be necessary.

THE SERMON delivered by Rev. Mr. Cridge at the Reformed Episcopal Church on Sunday morning, the 8th inst., on Schisms and Schismatics, will be published in this journal to-morrow. It is a powerful address, and furnishes a complete refutation of the attempt made in a certain quarter to misrepresent the Reformed movement.

WORTH NOTICING. — An entire new stock of Fine Gold and Silver Watches and Chains and a splendid assortment of every description of Jewelery and Clocks, all of late selection, are offered for sale at LOW FIGURES by G. W. A. LANGE, Yates st., Victoria, B.C. 3m

DANGEROUS BRIDGE.—Complaints from various quarters are reaching us about the condition of the country roads. Our attention has been especially called to a dangerous bridge a little beyond Elk Lake, on the East Saanich road, which it is hoped will receive early attention.

THE steamer North Pacific, from Puget Sound ports, came in at 5¼ o'clock last evening, bringing a large mail, 30 passengers and a small quantity of live stock.

ALHAMBRA HALL.—Last evening there was a good attendance and an excellent performance. We hear that the troupe will leave on the North Pacific for Puget Sound to-day.

THE recent Episcopal conference held at New York voted down Ritualism.

G. KEYSER, the "dead man," is walking round at Portland, Oregon.

THE great horse-race for $25,000 takes place at San Francisco to-day.

THE BRITISH COLONIST will enter its 17th year on the 11th day of next month.

Ship Wrecked in Esquimalt Harbor.

The Nicaraguan ship Garza was towed into the mouth of Esquimalt harbor yesterday afternoon by the tug Isabel for repairs. The tug then, at the request of Pilot McKinnon, who was on board the ship cast her off. The ship continued under light headway towards the Hudson Bay Company's wharf, and when nearing that wharf orders were given to cast anchor when, to the dismay of all on boord, it was discovered that the chain was foul at the windlass. Before the chain could be freed the vessel ran upon a rock which lies near the wharf. The Isabel was sent for and returned, but could not get the ship off, and it was feared last night, that when the tide fell, she would break her back. Marine men give it as their opinion that the vessel is ruined. The Garza has a tonnage of 1500, was condemned as an English ship some years ago, and was then entered under the Nicaraguan flag. She loaded with lumber at Hastings Mills a fortnight ago and went to sea, but returned for repairs on Tuesday last.

MR. E. J. BUCKLEY, the actor, formerly of Victoria, is playing at Chicago under a three years' engagement.

Communication.

My dear young lady friends, companions and pupils, of my beloved child, deceased.

"I cannot thank you all personally for the great interest you have taken in erecting such an appropriate tombstone to her memory; and hope you will accept of myself and family, heartfelt appreciation of the great sympathy and affection shown for her and my bereavment. I assure you it will always be very soothing to me to know she had so many friends to whom I feel indebted. May we all abide with her in heaven, is the earnest prayer of your sincere friend and well-wisher. M. B. ELLA.

A False Prophet.

EDITOR COLONIST:—On the 29th of October the organ of Bishop Hills, published in this city, in speaking of the Reformed Church Movement said:

"The nine days' wonder will soon have ceased, and things (at the Cathedral) will go on much as before."

Twice nine days have fled since the above prophecy was made, and yesterday the organ piped forth the following:

"The sittings in the (Reformed Episcopal Church) have all been taken and new pews are being constructed for additional members who have signified their intention to join."

If I am not much mistaken it was such advice as that of the Standard, that the Reformation was only "a nine days' wonder" which encouraged the Bishop to pursue his insane course. I am, &c.,

A REFORMED CHURCHMAN.

Nov. 13te, 1874.

A Bishop's Vow.

EDITOR COLONIST:—I would call your attention to the following question and answer taken from the "Form of Service used in the Church of England for the Consecration of a Bishop."

"Question—Will you show yourself gentle, and be merciful for Christ's sake to poor and needy people," &c.

"Answer—I will so show myself, by God's help."

Mr. Editor, we fortunately do not often hear of this vow being broken; but occasionally we do when we are told of widows being turned out of house and home, penniless with nowhere to rest their heads were it not for some kind friend who is not a Bishop. I am confident it would be better for all Bishops had they more humanity, and if they tried to do good by smothering anything that was not egregiously wrong and not pursue with self-conceit, detestible egotism, haughtiness and hatred good men who will not look upon them as God's representatives. Then the Church of England will flourish like a palm tree, and not till then.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

Canada.

TORONTO, Nov. 13.—Lieut.-Governor Crawford to-day opened the Ontario Parliament with a speech from the Throne, in which he announced that the aggregate revenue for the year would be certain to exceed the aggregate amount estimated, and that the aggregate expenditure would be less than the amount authorized to be expended.

California.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—London was startled last night by a report that Queen Victoria was dead. There is no official confirmation of the rumor.

The weather is very promising for the great $25,000 running race to-morrow.

Greenbacks unchanged.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—There was no truth in the report of the death of Queen Victoria.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—Wheat and flour unchanged.

Oats—$1 35 @ $1 55.

HENDAGE, Nov. 12. — The Republicans opened fire on the Carlist retrenchments at Mount St. Marlo yesterday and carried several positions with severe loss to the insurgents.

LONDON, Nov. 13.—A Standard special from Hendage says the retreat of the Carlists from Irun was in a stampede. Hundreds of burning houses mark the progress of the Republicans, who occupied San Moateil at nine o'clock a. m. on last Thursday, and were on the way to destroy the fortress at Vera, to which place the Carlists had retreated. The Carlists burned the houses before they had retreated.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—Despatches to the Daily News from Vienna say intelligence has been received there stating that rumors are current in St. Petersburg of conspiracies, and a number of arrests were made in Moscow in consequence.

HENDAGE, Nov. 11.—Noon—It is reported that Don Carlos and General Elio have been cut off from the field of battle near Irun. The Carlists are much dispirited, but still maintain their positions.

Evening—The Carlists have retreated from before Irun and the Republicans occupy the positions held by the besiegers.

Gen. Lazerna has entered Irun with his escort.

BRADFORD, Nov. 11.—The Yorkshire Chamber of Commerce to-day unanimously adopted a memorial to the Government condemning the proposed Reciprocity Treaty between Canada and the United States, deprecating the imposition of the lower duties in Canada than in England.

HENDAGE, Nov. 13.—The troops were in hot pursuit of the retreating Carlists, and are burning their houses. Nearly 300 have been already destroyed.

BAYONNE, Nov. 13.—The Carlists are concentrating in Navarre between Vera and Larza. The Republicans are in pursuit of them.

Eastern States.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Baron Santano, new Portuguise Minister, was received by the President to-day.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—The steamship Colon sailed from Aspinwall for New York, Nov. 9th. The steamship City of Panama arrived at Aspinwall Nov. 9th, from New York. The steamship Vancouver sailed from Yokohama Nov. 9th for San Francisco. The steamship Vasco de Gama arrived at Yokohama on 9th and sailed for Hongkong Nov. 10th.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 13.—A special to the Galveston News says the Americans are raiding into Texas, robbing stores and farmers of goods and stock.

BOSTON, Nov. 11—Gen. Butler is preparing for publication a letter showing causes of his defeat. He claims to have been betrayed by professed friends and promises uncomfortable revelations. He threatens to form a new party in Massachusetts.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—The Daily Bulletin publishes a review of the British wheat crop, based chiefly on the estimates of Thos. Scott, London, to swow that the crop will stand an average of 30 bushels per acre, that the prospect of next crop is very fine, that the clover and turnip failures have caused the sowing of an unusually large area in wheat, probably four million acres, and consequently that the British market for the new crop promises to be better than the present.

A strike of ten thousand longshoremen next Monday against the reduction of wages seem inevitable. Ship owners declare that dull business makes the reduction of wages indispensable to the maintenance of their lines. It is a well-known fact that the number of longshoremen is double the required number.

DELAYED DISPACHES.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 10.—Belcher paid a dividend of $312,000 to-day. Con. Virginia will pay $524,000 Wednesday and Crown Point $300,000 on Thursday.

In pool selling on the great running race for next Saturday, Katie Pease is the first choice, but That Stevens is selling about even.

The weather is rainy. It is presumed the trotting race for to-morrow will be postponed, but pools are selling to night. Occident is still the favorite.

Last Sunday a terrible murder was committed in the Southern part of the city. It is stated that Edward McGuce had for months separated from his wife on account of his intemperate habits and brutal treatment of her. He desired a reconcilation, and sent her a letter, in which he promised to conduct himself properly. She did not answer the letter, and to-day he went to her home, armed with a shotgun. She could not consent to return to him, and as he threatened to kill her, she took up her little child and ran from him. He pursued, and when within about ten feet of her, fired. The charge took effect in her back and she fell dead, but the child was not hurt.

THE ETHERIAL BLUE COLOR OF THE SKY is due to minute particles of matter which float in the air. Were these particles removed, the appearance of the sky would be dead black. It is a fact in optics that exceedingly fine portions of matter disperse or scatter the blue rays of light, coarser portions scatter red rays, still coarser portions scatter all the rays, making white light. The atmosphere is full of aqueous vapor, the particles of which diffuse white light in all directions. When these particles are enlarged, they become visible in the form of clouds. The vapor particles of the white clouds are supposed to be finer and thinner than those of the dark clouds. That the diffusion of light in our atmosphere, the blue coloring of the sky, and the colors of the clouds, are due to the presence of matter floating in the air, has been conclusively proven by Tyndall.

HOPS.—In Sweden a strong cloth is manfactured from hop stalks. The stalks are gathered in autumn and soaked in water during the whole winter. The material is then dried in an oven and woven as flax. The buds of hops can be nsed as an esculent, and when boiled will do as a substitute for asparagus. The tendrils, when young, may be used in the same way.

Who Invented Sausages?

not HEYWOOD.

A correspondent asks us this question: "Who was the inventor of sausages?" We answered: It was unknown. Julius Cæsar claimed to be the inventor, but historians and commentators have universally scouted his claim. There is no doubt in the minds of the best informed writers on the subject but that the Germans were the inventors of the sausage, and that Cæsar in his wars against the stubborn German tribes became acquainted with their way of making the sausage. On his return to Rome, after crossing the Rubicon, he tried to induce the inhabitants of the Imperial city to adopt it as an article of food, but the Romans were rich, they fed on luxuries garnered from the lands which they had conquered and they rejected the sausage. On the morning of the day of his death at the hands of the conspirators, Cæsar sadly informed his wife that Imperial Rome was tottering to its fall, and that fall was hastened by its rejection of sausages. It is a singular and extraordinary fact—one quoted by the great historian Simanides, and Gibbons, and Niebuhr—that no nation has been great as a military power, in modern times, which did not make sausages one of its prime articles of diet. The recent war between Germany and France proves this. Seventy-five years ago the French were intensely fond of sausage, then they overran Europe. But, like the Romans, they took to luxurous living, and the downfall of la belle France followed.

The Germans have always been a warlike nation. They have always been eaters of sausage. The greatest general of modern times, Moltke, dines upon sausage three times a day. He says that no man who is not a lover of sausages can ever make a great general. Some years ago he was called upon while at breakfast by a young officer. He was eating his usual meal of "wurst and pumpernickel," and asked the young officer to join him. The offer was declined on the ground that he never could eat sausages. "Sir," said the great general, looking at the officer with flashing eyes, "the man who cannot eat sausages need never expect promotion from me." The young officer at once applied himself so assiduously to the cultivation of a taste for sausages that in the late war he had risen to be General Von Moltke's chief of staff. A distaste for sausages led to the dismissal of a wooer of the General's daughter. She afterwards married a manufacturer of sausages with her father's approbation, and she is now the happy mother of eight healthy sausage-eating children. Were anyone to say in General Von Moltke's presence that sausages were made out of refuse dogs, he would regard it as a mortal offence. And yet he has never accounted for the decadence in the number of dogs in Germany since sausages became the national food, as frogs are that of the French, potatoes and herrings of the Irish, beef and plum pudding of the English, buckwheat cakes and tobacco of Americans, and Heywood's Pork Sausage of British Columbians. ***

DR. BARNARD

HEREBY TENDERS HIS SINCERE THANKS to Dr. Thompson, of Portland, and the Ladies under his charge, who kindly permitted his witnessing the fillings of some of their teeth during his late sojourn in this city.

Every manipulation of the Doctor's was closely watched, from the adjustment of the Rubber Dam and its appliances to their teeth, to the formation of proper cavities and retaining pits therein, the Packing and Condensation of Gold and the subsequent polishing and burnishing of the same.

The Doctor is satisfied, from what he saw, and from recent operations of his own, that no perfect Filling can be accomplished without using the Rubber Dam and separately Annealing and Malleting every strip of gold into the cavity by itself. Gold thus condensed must last a lifetime.

DR. BARNARD is happy to inform the public that the process of preparing and Filling a Tooth with the aid of New Instruments and appliances is almost as much a pastime with him now as is the insertion of Partial or Entire Sets of Teeth.

Persons not born with a gold tooth in their mouth can readily have a Gold Crown built on a decayed tooth or solid portion thereof that will LAST FOREVER.
